She has acted in more than 70 international disputes, as counsel and arbitrator (including presiding arbitrator), in administered arbitrations and ad hoc proceedings, governed by various procedural and substantive laws, both common law and civil law, including English, Swiss, American, Swedish and French, and by international law.

Her areas of specialization include joint venture, M&A, shareholders, sales, distribution and investment disputes in the energy (oil & gas, solar, mining), telecommunications, commodity trading, infrastructure projects and pharmaceutical sectors.

Domitille Baizeau is Vice President of the Arbitration Court of the Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution which administers arbitrations subject to the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration (member of the Court since 2010). She is also a member of the Board and the Executive Committee of ASA, the Swiss Arbitration Association (and former co-chair of ASA below 40), an officer of the European Users' Council of the LCIA (and former co-chair of YIAG), member of the Executive Committee of FIAA (Foundation for International Arbitration Advocacy) and member of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of Terralex. Domitille Baizeau has been ranked for several years by Chambers (Global-wide, Europe-wide and Switzerland) for International Arbitration, as counsel and arbitrator, and by The International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration. In 2011, she was selected as one of 45 "leading figures" in international arbitration below the age of 45, following a peer-review process conducted by Global Arbitration Law Review.

Before joining LALIVE, Domitille Baizeau practiced in litigation and arbitration in New Zealand with a leading business law firm and in France with Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Paris. She graduated from the University of Canterbury in New Zealand in 1995 (LL.B. First Class Honours) and also holds a Diploma in French law from the Université Paris II Assas-Panthéon.
