YAP

Yap is an informal network of young arbitration practitioners, whose aim is to create a discussion forum for young arbitration practitioners worldwide. YAP was initially set up by young arbitration practitioners from the IAI, ASA, CFA and is not affiliated with any association.

LIST OF PARTICIPATING ASSOCIATIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS

ASA below 40, the Arbitration Association for Young Lawyers at the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, the Australasian Forum for International Arbitration, CBar, CEPANI 40, the Comité Français de l'Arbitrage, DIS 40, the International Arbitration Institute, the International Chamber of Commerce, the International Centre for Dispute Resolution, LCIA's YIAG, the Young Austrian Arbitration Practitioners, the Young Arbitration Forum, the Young Brazilian Arbitration Practitioners and the Young Canadian Arbitration Practitioners.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE

This event will primarily be of interest to young arbitration practitioners below 40 years of age who have an interest in arbitration/ADR, either as practitioners, academics, members of arbitral institutions or arbitration related organizations, or because they are affiliated with governmental agencies involved in international commerce and foreign affairs. Arbitration practitioners aged 40 and over are, of course, welcome to attend.
